M'DONALD, BIRD LEAD OPEN GOLF QUALIFIERS

TERRY'S METHOD MAKES MEN OF GIANTS AGAIN

If Boys Want Beer Boss'll Buy It.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 6.—Although John McGraw has been a prolific writer of the vicarious sort, I do not believe I ever read in any of his essays an explanation of that paradox, his ideal ball player. McGraw's ideal had to be proud, aggressive, and independent and at the same time so servile as to endure without back talk the castigations of a sometimes sour and grouchy boss and submit to the snooping and prying of a lot of spies and tattle tales, who might count the number of corn flakes he had for breakfast and trail him through the streets, hiding in doorways, to report on his social activities in his own time.

Bill Terry, the man who took over the job when McGraw gave up, had had experience with this espionage and once in Chicago some years ago he and Irish Meusel, finding themselves under surveillance, quickened their pace to half a run and dodged up alleys and in and out to places for several hours, finally leading their footsore shadow back to the hotel with no crimes to report against the McGrayian code of discipline. Another time, not long ago, in St. Louis, one of the house detectives who infested the family circle of the ball club challenged Terry to account for his conduct when he came in at bed time, which was 11:30 under McGraw's rule.

Mr. Terry Told Him.

"It is none of your business where I have been," Mr. Terry said. "But I don't mind your knowing that I was dining at the Country club, and it might interest you to know that I am going again when and if I get another invitation."

The house detective in this case was the club trainer, Doc Knowles, and inasmuch as Terry abolished the spy and tattle system as soon as he took over the ball club, it does seem as though the resignation of McGraw had left his unfortunate trainer on a limb.

Terry postponed curfew until midnight on the road, explaining that many a time he had had to hop into a cab and rush off from a theater to the hotel to get there by 11:30, and he also let it be known that henceforth any athlete who wished to stay out after midnight could get special permission from him. Moreover, he relaxed the rule pertaining to small beers, and said he would not only drink an occasional beer with his hands, but would buy theirs for them.

Cadets Would Have Revolted.

It seems incredible that a man as independent as McGraw, with McGraw's contempt for timidity, should have imposed on a body of men who were expected to hold their heads up and fight for ball games a set of conditions which would be an insult to a West Point cadet, who at least is on his honor and not subject to the peering and prying informers.

A West Point officer would take no notice of a snitch, but the Giants always felt that they were in the presence of secret agents, and I could easily understand their frame of mind if they had unintentionally let McGraw down along toward the end of his service, unable to hustle for a man who placed them under suspicion. This condition arose in a day when McGraw had notorious drunkards on his team and there was some reason for him to spend $5,000 for detective hire, as he did one year to police one of his pitchers. But putting fly cops on such players as he had had with him in recent years was a curious way to stimulate their loyalty and enthusiasm.

McGraw had an office removed from the club dressing room at the Polo grounds and a member of the ball club never saw the inside of the room, except in glimpses when the door stood ajar. But when Terry took hold he threw the door open, invited the ball club to make his room theirs, and told them they would be very foolish to continue to use a pay station telephone in the locker room now that he had a free one on his desk which they were all at liberty to make use of. Within 24 hours after Terry took the job the carpet on the floor of McGraw's own office was beginning to show the wear and tear of baseball spikes and the mystery of the Old Man's office had been completely dispelled.

You Can Go Too Far.

It is possible to go too far in the other direction, as Lena Blackburn and some other chummy baseball managers have to their regret, but I don't think any member of the Giants who tries to impose on Terry will be long finding out that Terry is just as much the boss as McGraw was, though without the boarding school notion of proper conduct. Under McGraw athletes who are mature men, some of them with families, were required to live by a routine and subject to petty impositions on their freedom which a schoolmaster of the modern type would not impose on a lot of children.

So they became secretive themselves and players who had been spied upon by a party of the type of Cozy Dolan learned to go outside the hotel when they wished to phone on the road lest their privacy be invaded. I doubt that

GETTING FIT FOR GERMANS

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Leo Rodak, captain of the 1932 Golden Gloves boxers, wants a birthday present. And he's going to earn it himself.

On July 16, Rodak will be 20 years of age. Ten days later he expects to face a German lad, national amateur champion, in the international boxing matches at Soldiers' field. An international victory, a second in succession for Rodak whipped the flyweight champion of France last year, is the present Leo wants to give himself.

The German team, which invades Chicago next month, is reputed to be the strongest in Europe. Chosen by elimination tournaments more than three months ago, the German boys since have been put through a series of international matches. But even the score of Germany's defeat of a Yankee team last winter, 10 to 6, doesn't bother Rodak. It shouldn't, for he is one of the best amateur boxers in the United States.

Twice Glove Champ.

Leo has fought in two Golden Gloves campaigns. In 1931, when he had had only 12 amateur bouts, Leo sailed through the flyweight division, winning the Chicagoland championship with seven consecutive victories. He followed with a decision over his New York opponent in the intercity bouts at the Stadium, which Chicago won 13 to 3. Then five weeks later, Leo whipped the French flyweight champion for the international title.

This year Rodak competed in the 118 pound class. Again he won the championship with seven fights, but he lost a close decision to Johnny DeFoe of New York in three rounds at Madison Square Garden. That defeat, especially since Leo was team captain, rankled. Leo wanted to box Johnny again, and had his parents permitted, he would have hitch hiked to New York with the hope of proving he could lick Johnny.

He has Lost 4 Bouts.

The defeat was the fourth for Rodak in more than two years. Since the first time Leo pulled on a pair of boxing gloves in the Tower Recreation club at 91st street and South Chicago avenue, he's been the sensation of his amateur classes. In all he has had 56 fights and he's won 23 by knockouts. One other time defeat caught up with Leo when it was most important he should win. George Haberski beat Rodak for the bantamweight championship of the 1931 C. Y. O. tournament, and Leo missed the trip to the Pacific coast with the Catholic team. Since then Leo has squared this account.

Life wasn't all play at the bungalow at 9202 Anthony avenue, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rodak. Leo has four brothers but no sisters, so while he won't admit it, the boys frequently have been pressed into service about the home and it hasn't always been cutting grass and such manual chores. But no boy likes to talk of dish washing and pushing a broom.

He May Turn Pro.

Mike Rodak, Leo's 23 year old brother, is a professional bicycle rider. He graduated from the amateur ranks several years ago and made his debut in a Chicago six day race. Peter, the eldest son, at one time was a jockey, the Rodaks running to that size, as, of course, you know since Leo now is a 118 pounder. Walter, 22, and Steven, 16, complete the family roster.

Leo was graduated from the Sheridan grammar school and attended Bowen High for nearly three years. He began a commercial course, but changed to printing, leaving high school to take a job with the Process Engraving company. That job, however, has gone the way of many another in the last couple of years, and Leo now is thinking of a professional ring career.

SANDWICH, June 6.—Alfred Robert Bradbeer, young English professional from Somerset, headed the first qualifying round in the British open tournament today with a 70 over the Royal St. George's course.

Tommy Armour, the titleholder, and the young Oxford university amateur, Robert Sweeney, with 75 apiece put up the best American performances on that ground, but Gene Sarazen and MacDonald Smith, scored 73's on the Prince's course, which is rated three strokes easier than the St. George's course with its mountainous sand dunes and long grass bordering fairways.

Other Americans Near Edge.

Players with a total score of between 150 and 160 are expected to qualify, which makes the position of the remaining Americans somewhat precarious. Ross Thompson, Stuart Sheftel and Douglas Grant each had an 80 and Walter Pursey carded an 81; Paul Azbill and Frank Sweeney scored 85; Gordon Smith 88, and Joshua Crane 89.

The players will change courses for the second half of the qualifying round tomorrow. The tournament proper will open Wednesday morning at Prince's. One hundred in the field of 236 will qualify.

Conditions at St. George's were apparent when E. R. Whitcombe turned in an 84. The stiff easterly wind, however, dropped in the afternoon and Bradbeer picked up three twos in the first nine holes. Armour found trouble in the morning at the seventh but turned in a 38 and played par golf for the remaining holes. He should have an easy task at Prince's tomorrow.

Old Stars Shine Again.

There was great joy in the British camp at the form displayed by several members of the older school on Prince's. Arthur Havers, the last Briton to win the championship in 1923, returned a 71 with birdies at the first and sixteenth holes, while Abe Mitchell, whom all Britons wish to see win this year, played beautiful golf until the last two holes for his 73. He still seems to play in a state of high tension and nervously pulled a mashie to the last green.

Edward Ray, in his 55th year, was also in the first flight at Prince's with a 73. He missed five putts from distances of from two feet to three yards. The veteran was out in 36 and home in 37. He took a driver for a second shot at the sixth and placed the ball a yard from the pin for 3, and at the seventh he placed a brassie within easy holing distance for another 3.

Sarazen Makes Great Shot.

MacDonald Smith found three bunkers in his round of 73—from his drive at the 12th and near the green at the 14th and 18th—but in each case he got par figures. At both the 14th and 18th holes he played explosion shots from the sand and then sank seven yard putts.

Gene Sarazen's 73 included an astounding shot at the sixth hole which will be discussed at the Prince's club for years. He was off the fairway with his drive, as he had been at every previous hole where he had taken a wood from the tee, and found his ball on a hanging lie almost completely hidden in the grass with a clump of longer grass behind it.

After some deliberation with his old

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The Washington Senators, said to be not nearly so sassy as they were when they entertained the White Sox in Washington a month ago, are in town ready to play four games of baseball with determination, if not hope, to regain some of the prestige they lost when they were trimmed last Saturday in both ends of a doubleheader with the Red Sox.

The Senators are bound to be softened up considerably as a result of losing two in one day to the Red Sox, a team that is rated as the weakest in the big tents since the days when infielders wore mustaches.

In addition to their great mental suffering, the Senators also have been without the services of Shortstop Joe Cronin and Outfielder Heinie Manush. While their substitutes have been doing right well, Washington never feels it has a team on the field without Cronin. Joe's place has been taken by Johnny Kerr, class of '31, and you know how those alumni perform against the Sox.

Sox Won Once.

So far this year the Senators and Sox have met in three games, all in Washington. On May 6 the Sox won, 5 to 3, behind Caraway, relieved by Faber. The next day the Senators hopped on Frasier for 10 hits and six runs in three innings. The Senators won, 7 to 2.

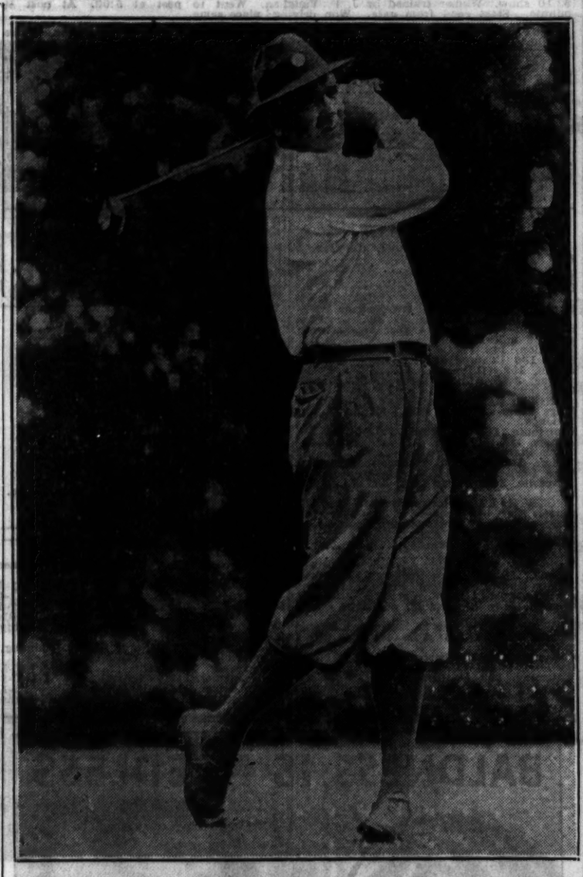
On May 8 Ted Lyons made his first start of the season and soon found himself mixed up in one of the most interesting contests of the year. The Senators led, 3 to 0, at the end of the second inning, but the Sox made two runs in the third and two more in the sixth, to grab a 4 to 3 lead. The Senators tied it up in the sixth and were prevented from going ahead by a great play at the plate, which retired Rice, who tried to make a homer of his pinch triple.

In the ninth Red Kress and Luke Appling doubled to put the Sox in front, but Sheriff Harris, class of '30, singled and later scored the tying run, after being advanced by Kerr, '31. Double plays in the eleventh and twelfth innings and a foldup in the thirteenth checked promising Sox rallies and dramatic Sox fielding blocked the Senators in the same innings.

Ah, the Bloody Alumni!

But there was sad alumni news in the Senator fourteenth, you'll remember. Cronin doubled to left and Carl Reynolds, class of '31, was given an intentional pass. Judge rolled one to Blue and it appeared Lyons was out of the woods when Lu's throw got Cronin at third. Bluege then flied to Fothergill, but Moe Berg, class of '31, took two strikes then drove the ball over third, bringing Reynolds home with the bacon.

The high spots of this fine game are recited not so much as a historical enterprise as a rib to the Sox to impress upon them the urge for avenging Lyons, who probably will pitch the opener this afternoon.



There it goes! Bob McDonald sends the ball far down the fairway in his successful quest for a place in the national open tournament. McDonald tied for first with 151. [TRIBUNE Photos.]

VEECK PROTESTS CALLING OFF OF CARDINAL GAME

President W. L. Veeck of the Cubs has protested to John L. Heydler, president of the National league the action of Umpires Moran and Magerkurth in calling off the Cub-Cardinal game at Wrigley field last Wednesday. The game was won by St. Louis, 1 to 0.

The game was called off in the first half of the eighth inning and President Veeck contended in his protest that the umpires did not inspect the field after the rain stopped to determine whether or not it was fit to play.

The Cardinals had scored two runs in the eighth, but they were not allowed as the score reverted to the close of the seventh inning. President Veeck said he did not protest the Cardinal victory, but wanted the umpires to be more thorough in the future.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

They don't give any medals to the leaders in the qualifying rounds for the National open golf championship but if such were the case they would have had to cut the prize in two and give half to big Bob MacDonald of Chicago and the rest to Johnny Bird of Milwaukee, in the Chicago district trials yesterday at Olympia Fields. Each came home with a 36 hole card of 151 to lead the field of 134 who went over the No. 1 and No. 4 courses of the south side club, all of them seeking one of the sixteen places which would admit them to the tournament proper at the Fresh Meadow Country club, Flushing, N. Y., June 23, 24, and 25.

That field of 134 had dwindled to 118 by sundown, for after the morning round a number of the aspirants for the sixteen places allotted to the Chicago District Golf association decided then and there that battling par was enough without trying to take on a rainstorm with it. It was pouring steadily when the first threesomes started out on the two courses and was still going strong nearly two hours later. Then it subsided into a drizzle just irritating enough to hamper several players who had been expected to qualify, and it didn't stop altogether until shortly before noon.

Only Two Amateurs Qualify.

McDonald and Bird will lead fourteen professionals to the big show at Fresh Meadow, for only two amateurs, Johnny Lehman of Olympia Fields and Gordon Kummer, were able to make the chosen sixteen.

Kummer, who hails from Milwaukee, had a 77—76—153 to tie Abe Espinosa for third place, and Lehman turned in 79—75—154 to share fourth place with Gunnar Nelson of Rockford. Eight of the qualifiers are golfers who make Chicago their home the year around, and it remained for three of them to shoot the best rounds of the day on the two courses.

Two Chicago Hopefuls Fade.

MacDonald's 74 was the best of the day on No. 1, while Lehman and the veteran Jock Hutchison of Glen View turned in 75's on No. 4. Only two Chicagoans who appeared to be certain qualifiers before the trials failed. They were George Dawson of Glen Oak, with 161, and Chick Evans of Edgewater, with 162. The qualifying limit proved to be 157, and no playoffs for last place were necessary. The complete list of qualifiers follows:

Bob MacDonald, Chicago	74	77	151
John H. Bird, Milwaukee	75	76	151

EASTERN 2 YEAR OLDS RUN TOO FAST FOR WEST'S

Not Once but Three Times They Turn the Trick.

BY FRENCH LANE.

You should have heard the western owners of thoroughbred race horses yell "Ouch" out in the dusk of the Washington Park course last night. And you also should have heard the easterners celebrate.

For during an afternoon of very muddy racing three two year old races were offered, each carrying the allowance clause, and the westerners were completely routed when all three struggles were accounted for by eastern juveniles.

Could you blame these hardy westerners for shouting ouch? One couldn't under the circumstances in these times.

It was Polygeny, a daughter of Polymelian, which accounted for the Daffodil purse which opened the program. She was bred by W. R. Coe and ran in his silks yesterday, although she had been sold shortly before the race to a Kentuckian.

Salmon Juvenile Wins.

Then in the Parkview purse Projectile, a son of Swift and Sure, came from behind and headed our western star, Levaal, to carry the silks of Walter J. Salmon's Mere Worth stud to victory.

Next came the Lavergne purse for 2 year old fillies, and after a right merry mud spattering skirmish coming down the stretch, Double Shuffle, from Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree stable, came from behind to beat our westerner, Terry Lass, owned by Howard Oots, by a length. Dusky Lass, a filly from Chicago, finished third.

The easterners realized good prices on their investments except in the case of Polygeny, which had been made the favorite and won like a top heavy choice. When he beat Sizzling, another easterner, by a couple of lengths, he was at odds on and paid $3.48. But when Jockey Allen sent Projectile to his triumph he paid $14.60. Then when Riley rushed Double Shuffle up on the outside to victory she paid $18.02.

Every last easterner in the crowd was down on these youngsters from along the Atlantic seaboard, so they could not be blamed for being quite hilarious.

Derby Eligibles Clash.

Five American Derby eligibles came together in the Preparation Purse and the favorite players all patted themselves on the chest and remarked, "What a smart guy I am," when Big Beau, owned by Hal Price Headley, came bounding home the winner by three and a half lengths from I Pass, a Kentucky colt which so far has never won a race. Yonkel, a Californian, wound up third, but soundly beaten. The rear guard included Edward R. Bradley's Battering Ram and the Three Ds stable's Rowdy Boy.

Big Beau always has been considered quite a colt by Mr. Headley. He demonstrated some stretch running ability as a 2 year old last year, but so far this season, despite the high regard in which he was held, Big Beau hasn't accomplished much through a campaign in Maryland and Kentucky this spring. When he walked into the winner's circle yesterday he was enjoying his first taste of victory of the season.

He was much the best and negotiated the muddy mile in 1:43, rewarding his backers at $4.72 for a $2 ticket. He outclassed his rivals and probably will get a chance to go on to greater things in the Derby.

What? Ringer at Homewood? So They Say

Regulars at Washington Park yesterday wondered if some skullduggery had been attempted. Whispers went around that a ringer had been nipped by the judges at the eleventh hour. At any rate Run Off was ordered scratched out of the second race at the last minute because she could not be properly identified.

On the program Run Off was described as a 3 year old bay daughter of Runantell-Parthema, owned by T. T. Mott and trained by R. Smart. D. Meade had been employed to ride her.

The only two starts Run Off ever made were at the half mile track in Hagerstown, Md. Maybe the horse is O. K., but the Washington Park judges will have to be shown before she is permitted to run here. The presence of four or five officials in the paddock before saddling time for each race shows how suspicious the big racing associations are growing of ringer affairs.

Burgoo King, Edward R. Bradley's Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner, will start west next Saturday for his American Derby and Arlington Classic engagements. He will be accompanied here by Trainer Dick Thompson and will come from Belmont Park. Bradley advised Chicago friends yesterday that Burgoo King looks better now than at anytime this season.

Other American Derby candidates will be arriving almost daily this week. Tom Young, the Washington Park track superintendent, has been advised to prepare stalls for Stepenfetchit, Mad Pursuit, Osculator, Gusto, Our Fancy, Boatswain, and Economic. It has not been decided whether Falreno, the Belmont Stakes winner, will be shipped here. He is owned by William Woodward, chairman of the jockey club in New York.

Seems as though Suntica, the Illinois Oaks winner, will be just as much of a traveler as the old champion Sun Beau. Owner Kilmer ordered her shipped to New York yesterday to fill a stake engagement and she will be returned here in time to try for the American Derby. Suntica will be accompanied on the return trip from New York by Sunmelus, another Kilmer American Derby eligible.

Just before Polygeny won the first race yesterday she was sold by W. R. Coe to L. C. Young of Lexington. Young owns some Kentucky oil wells in addition to some race horses.

The favorite players had plenty of uncomplimentary remarks for Jockey D. Meade yesterday. His weak riding had caused Garlic, the favorite, to be beaten in the sixth race and it also brought the downfall of Dixie Lad, the heavily backed choice in the last race. The youngster did everything wrong. He raced Garlic in such close quarters all the way that the horse had no chance to get through. He took Dixie Lad so far out of it early in the last race that this famous old mudder could not have caught the leaders with a motorcycle.

BARNEY ROSS IS STOPPED—BY A BASEBALL BAT

It was learned yesterday that Barney Ross, west side lightweight, was hit by a baseball bat during a game at Grant park Sunday. Ross, who was catching, was hit above the right eye, the injury requiring three stitches.

The west sider is sought to headline the second show at the West Side Boxing club against either Kid Chocolate, junior lightweight champion, or Lew Massey.

Prince Saunders, south side lightweight, faces four bouts in three weeks. At Milwaukee tonight he boxes Charley Crocker. On Friday he clashes with Lou Novarro at Eau Claire, Wis. Then he meets Mickey Duris in an eight round semi-final bout at Pittsburgh, June 15, and Tracey Cox at Indianapolis June 21.

CUBS READY TO SHOW EAST WHY THEY'RE ON TOP

Hack Wilson and Dodgers Are Hosts Today.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 6.—The east, which always is skeptical of anything bearing a western trade mark, is about to see for itself just what is keeping the Cubs in first place in the merry go round National league. Of course, the margin by which the Chicagoans are occupying the coveted post now has dwindled to a matter of mere points, but the fact remains that Manager Hornsby still has his charges in the spot where the experts didn't expect to see them. And, even with their apparent weaknesses, they are quite likely to remain in that percentage vicinity for the next few months.

The opening act in the Cubs' first eastern exhibition of the campaign takes place tomorrow over in Brooklyn, which, among other things, now houses the one time great Hack Wilson. Because of two days of idleness Hornsby can pick any of about four pitchers for the job of attempting to humiliate Hack tomorrow, but the final choice is likely to be Lon Warneke, whose scheduled Sunday start at Chicago was erased by rain. The Dodgers' pick is likely to be Dazzy Vance.

Writers Like Hornsby.

Before the Cubs finish their eastern tour they probably will have a collection of press notices exceeding anything in recent years. Hornsby, himself, is a great favorite with the writers hereabouts and they don't object to his success, even though they might not understand it. The boys will be writing reams about his leading ability. Warneke, who has finished all of his nine starts for a total of 86 innings, is due for considerable headlining.

After four games in Brooklyn the Cubs will move up to Boston for a similar stay. The Braves, despite the inclination to believe their present position is just one of those harmless spring frolics, are not showing any signs of letting up, so the Cubs are assured of plenty of competition while in the Hub.

There's Lots of Work Ahead.

From Boston the Cubs jump back to New York for four arguments with the Giants, now under the management of Bill Terry. The feeling is that with John McGraw and his domineering methods out of the way Terry may be able to lift the team out of its present rut. If he doesn't lift them, you can be sure that there will be a new pilot picked after the season ends, if not before. In the wake of the series with the Giants will come a four day session with the blustering Phillies. Then St. Louis will have to be visited before the return to Wrigley field.

Wilson Hits 2 Homers, but Phils Win, 15-7

Philadelphia, Pa., June 6.—[Special.]—The Phillies returned home today and pounded three Brooklyn pitchers to score a 15 to 7 victory in the only game played in the major leagues.

Three Dodgers hurlers, Joe Shaute, Babe Phelps and Lefty Heimach, were hammered for 21 hits. The Phillies collected 14 runs in the first five innings while Phil Collins and Ray Benge held the Dodgers.

Collins and Benge yielded 12 hits. The Dodgers did not score until the sixth inning, when they counted two runs. They scored five more runs in the seventh.

Five home runs were made in the game, Chuck Klein, Lefty O'Doul, Glen Wright and Hack Wilson, hitting for the circuit. Wilson hit two, his ninth and tenth, of the season. Today's homer marked Klein's 14th.

Don Hurst led the Philadelphia attack with four singles and a walk in five times at bat to score four runs. Score:

BELMONT STAKES.

THE Belmont stakes of 1932, a turf fixture given important consideration in determining 3 year old champions, did not draw a representative field Saturday. It was won by Faireno, not rated highly previously. The stake was worth $55,120 to the winner, more than the Kentucky Derby or the Preakness.

The casual turf follower well may inquire whether $55,120 did not interest owners of Burgoo King, Tick On, Economic, Stepenfetchit, and others. It did, but those colts, strangely enough, were not eligible. Perhaps some explanation is merited.

The Belmont is what is known as an "early closing" stake. That is, the colts or fillies which were eligible to start last Saturday were nominated as weanlings on Dec. 2, 1929. That was more than two years ago. We do not recall the nomination fee offhand, but think it is $10.

There have been in the meantime various declaration dates on which other fees were necessary to keep the nominations eligible. Thus, the bulk of the winning money is contributed by fees from horsemen themselves. This is self-evident because the track adds $25,000, while Churchill Downs and Pimlico managements add $50,000, and the Belmont netted more to the winner than the Derby or Preakness.

Of course, if the then or now owners of Burgoo King, Tick On, Economic, and Stepenfetchit had known more than two years ago of the probable greatness of their colts this quartet would have been nominated and kept eligible for the Belmont. But that was over two years ago. The Belmont closed with 445 nominations, of which 57 were still eligible Saturday.

Nominations for the Kentucky Derby closed Feb. 3 with 115 nominations at $25 each. No further fees were required unless the entrant actually started in the race. By that time owners had at least 2 year old form to guide them in determining what colts or fillies to nominate. American Derby and Arlington Classic nominations closed still later.

Early closing or late closing stakes always have been a moot question. Western tracks, in general, have preferred late closing events so as to secure all the best performers. Seldom has the Belmont had missing so many possible champions, but it shows what can happen.

Arlington now is inaugurating early closing stakes patterned after the Belmont and Pimlico futurities. There seems a sort of sporting chance in nominating weanlings, or even mares before the foal is born. Breeders nominate widely to such events because it gives better prices for their yearlings at the annual sales. At the same time the cost of such nominations and keeping the youngsters eligible through the various declaration dates proves expensive.

The Wake, if asked for an opinion, would prefer a combination. We'd make events like the Arlington Classic, Kentucky Derby, Preakness, and Belmont late closing, with an admixture of early closing stakes, such as Arlington is starting, for 2 year olds.

No doubt Faireno is a good colt, for Belmont winners, with a few notable exceptions, have been among the great horses of the American turf. The distance, too—one and one-half miles—tends to test stamina and gameness. Faireno did not start in either the Kentucky Derby or Preakness because of a rather indifferent showing in the Wood Memorial.

If a really great colt, Faireno has a chance to prove it in the American Derby June 18, and Arlington Classic July 16, for both of which he is eligible. Faireno is owned by William Woodward of New York, who also was owner of Gallant Fox.

COCHET WHIPS DE STEFANI FOR FRENCH CROWN

AUTEUIL, France, June 6.—(AP)—Henri Cochet shelled George De Stefani of Italy, off the courts today to win the French tennis singles title and in so doing served notice that he is in top shape for the defense of the Davis Cup.

The little French ace, playing easily and using all the strokes of which he is master, defeated De Stefani, 6-1, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3 and kept for France a title no foreigner ever has won.

Woods and Waters by Bob Becker

A suitable tract of land with good cover can be almost as heavily populated with birds as a crowded section of a big city is with people. Some idea of how many feathered residents one is able to attract to a comparative small piece of land can be secured from the following letter from C. E. Weeks of Evanston, who has a cottage on Fox lake, in northern Illinois.

Mr. Weeks calls the roll on his birds like this:

"My place on Fox lake is 100x250 feet. I have made an attempt to attract all kinds of birds and I thought you would be interested in knowing what success I have had with a combination of cover, nesting boxes and protection against bird enemies.

1. A colony of purple martins—about 14 pairs in a 28 compartment house.
2. Several pairs of tree swallows in boxes on trees, fence posts, etc.
3. Several pairs of house wrens in boxes on trees and trellises.
4. One brown thrush and one chipping sparrow in a big blue spruce tree in the front yard.
5. One flicker in a box on a tree.
6. One pair of mourning doves and one pair of catbirds. The doves built on the remnants of an old nest left over from last year.
7. Several robins, which build any old place.
8. One pair of goldfinches. They built a nest in a box elder tree on the lawn.
9. One pair of bluebirds.

"I should say we had these birds, but they were chased out by the swallows, as they were driven from one box to another. Too bad, because the bluebird is a desirable tenant.

"We chased a pair of grackles from the place and finally had to kill one of them. You know why—they destroy the eggs of more desirable birds.

"I have noted your comments on the starling. You might be interested in our experiences with this alien during the last few months. The first pair showed up in April, soon as the martin house was up. The .410 gauge accounted for one of them. During the next few weeks another pair chased the flickers from a nesting box and immediately built a nest. I had to get the .410 gauge busy again and a female starling was removed.

"In less than twelve hours a male bird was back again with another mate, and a nest was built. Again the .410 gauge had to speak. Immediately following this ouster movement the flickers moved into the box and built their nest, and they are there now.

"There isn't any doubt but that the starling is going to make life miserable for many of our native birds. So let us have more facts about this alien bird. Personally, I'm 'agin' it."

Players in preliminary rounds, which already have begun on most of the courses, will compete in three flights of 16 each. The winner and runnerup in the first flight will be eligible for the finals.

The champion and runnerup will receive, in addition to trophies, season passes to all member courses.

GARIBALDI THINKS LONDOS MAY LOSE MATCH SOME DAY

Forget That Crack About Wrestlers Thinking, Pal

Gino Garibaldi, Jim Londos' opponent at Wrigley field Thursday night, arrived yesterday to complete training.

The St. Louis Italian, who has been wrestling professionally for four years, has never lost a match in Chicago. He is optimistic of his chances against Londos, about whom he said:

"Jim is tough—very tough. But he isn't getting any better, you know. Londos is no longer a youngster and he is working very hard every week. One of these days he will meet his master. They all come to the end of their string some day, you know. Anyway, that's what I'm hoping."

Londos will not reach the loop until tomorrow. He is coming from the east, where he "wrestled" Nick Altrock, baseball comedian, as a part of the congressional athletic carnival last week.

Jim McMillen is at his home in Antioch, Ill., and will not arrive in Chicago until the day of the match. He meets Milo Steinborn in one of the four supporting matches on the Londos-Garibaldi card.

Other bouts bring together George Zaharias and Pat O'Shocker, Hans Steinke and Rudy Dusek, and Jim Clinkstock and Paul Harper.

303 STARS WITH OLYMPIC HOPES ENTER N.C. MEET

Metcalfe to Defend His Laurels Friday.

A fair share of America's Olympic track team will appear on Stagg field Friday and Saturday for the eleventh annual national collegiate championships, it was indicated yesterday as entries reached the total of 303 from 63 colleges and universities.

The meet is an Olympic semi-final, three men qualifying in each event for the finals to be held at Palo Alto, Cal.

This has provided a stimulus in attracting outstanding performers. The fact that freshmen and other ineligibles will be admitted to all the events, to compete for Olympic places, but not for points, adds to the interest and to the worries of the timers.

Metcalfe Is Star.

Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette, and Henry Brocksmith of Indiana, two of the middle west's best Olympic hopes, will be centers of attention in the finals Saturday afternoon. Bert Nelson of Butler, who high jumped 6 feet 7⅜ inches to set a new intercollegiate record last week, will be another favorite.

Metcalfe has run the 100 yard dash in 9.5 seconds to equal the world's record and two weeks ago clipped one fifth of a second off the world 220 yard record with a 20.4 effort. The former Tilden Tech star has been practically without competition and when he is pressed by the sprint experts entered in the collegiate meet he may better his best times. One of his most formidable opponents will be Don Bennett of Ohio State, who scudded before the wind to victories at 9.5 and 20.5 in the Big Ten dashes.

Brocksmith, who has vied this year with George Venzke, eastern schoolboy, in upsetting the national concept of how long one mile is, will be out to crack the N. C. A. A. mark of 4:17.6 set by Conger of Iowa State in 1927. Brocksmith did a 4:12.5 mile in the indoor conference, and Saturday he will be pressed by Cunningham of Kansas, who took the Big Six mile at 4:14.3, Lyle Chapman of Iowa State, who ran 4:17 to place second in the same meet, and Howard Duffy of Villanova, who is credited with 4:16.

Brooks Must Repeat.

Nelson will be pressed by Worth Watkins of Abilene Christian, Tex., who has done 6 feet 5⅞, and H. Spencer of Geneva college, Pennsylvania, who has leaped 6 feet 5⅝.

Unless John Brooks, Chicago's Negro broad jumper, who leaped 25 feet to win the Big Ten title, can repeat Saturday, he may have to yield to Mell or Morris, both of Oklahoma, who have done 24 feet 5 inches, or to Lambert Reed of Bradley, who has done 24 feet 4¼.

The decision of the I. C. 4-A group to hold its meet in California this year may mean that the strong coast teams will not be entered in the Chicago competition, but the quality of the performances is not expected to suffer noticeably.

LOTT AND SUTTER WIN EASILY IN CLAY COURT PLAY

Memphis, Tenn., June 6.—(AP)—Cliff Sutter of New Orleans moved easily through two matches today to reach a round ahead of the field in the first day's play of the national clay courts tennis championship. Sutter, seeded number 2, next to George Lott of Chicago, took a second round match from Emil Hastings of Tulsa, 6-3, 6-0, and came back later in the afternoon to eliminate John D. Muse of Jackson, Tenn., 6-1, 6-0, in the third round.

Lott wasn't forced to extend himself to whip Evan Fellman of Memphis, 6-2, 6-1.

Bryan Grant, University of North Carolina, the favorite, won his second round match with a 6-1, 6-1 victory over Percy Young of Memphis. Berkeley Bell of New York, seeded number 3, went into the third round when Alexander Wellford of Memphis defaulted.

The galleries found a favorite in Ernest Koslan, a New York City junior, who defeated Fred Lepell of Chicago, 6-1, 6-0, in the second round.

SWEDEN TO SEND TEAM OF 50 TO OLYMPIC GAMES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

STOCKHOLM, June 6.—Sweden will be represented in the 1932 Olympics at Los Angeles by a team of 50, it was decided today by the Swedish Olympic committee.

LOST TO BOXING

HARRY ERTLE.

New York, June 6.—[Special.]—J. Harry Ertle, secretary of the New Jersey state boxing commission, died at the medical center in Jersey City today. He was fifty years old and was operated upon several months ago for an organic disease. Ertle was referee of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight at Boyle's Thirty Acres, and was well known in sports circles. He had been active politically in Jersey City and throughout the state for many years.

Jack Sharkey Orders Steak; (for His Eye)

Orangeburg, N. Y., June 6.—[Special.]—Jack Sharkey, challenger for Max Schmeling's heavyweight boxing title, awoke this morning to find himself the owner of a black eye. This is the first shiner the former sailor has sported since he graduated from the preliminary ranks nine years ago.

Works Eight Rounds.

Despite this unwelcome gift Sharkey indulged in a lively eight round workout today in the open air arena. He boxed four rounds, one with Flowers, two with Tommy de Stefano, Italian lightweight, and one with Charley Anderson, veteran colored heavyweight. The balance of the workout included two rounds of shadow boxing and one each on the light and heavy bags.

Sharkey's body is beginning to show the effects of three weeks' laborious work. The slight bulge that showed above the waistline when he started training has vanished and he has begun to take on the appearance of a well trained athlete.

Boxes 105 Rounds.

Jack has boxed 105 rounds to date and expects to run the total up to approximately 200 rounds before he steps into the ring for his return fight with Schmeling on June 21.

MAX ESCAPES BOLT

Kingston, N. Y., June 6.—[Special.]—Max Schmeling came within a few seconds of being injured by a bolt from a clear sky here this afternoon. The heavyweight boxing champion drove up before press headquarters only a short time after the building was struck by lightning that blew out all the telegraph instrument fuses and put the plant out of commission.

Several sticks of bakelite fusing were blown through the door through which the champion entered not ten seconds after the explosion. The lower floor was filled with dense smoke. Billy McCarney, partner of Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling, who was waiting for the champion, was the only one injured and his injuries were negligible.

Schmeling did not work out in public today. Instead he played the best round of golf he has had since he came here.

Wilce, Former Ohio Coach, Appointed to Federal Job

Washington, D. C., June 6—[Special.]—Dr. John W. Wilce, former football coach at Ohio State university, has been appointed a medical examiner for the aeronautics branch of the department of commerce.

Midget Wolgast Whips Tony Marino in 10 Rounds

Pittsburgh, Pa. June 6.—(AP)—Midget Wolgast, who is recognized as fly-weight champion in Pennsylvania and New York, won a 10 round decision over Tony Marino of Pittsburgh tonight. Each weighed 116.

the club gave McGraw any more confidence than he gave them.

A monument to the late Miller Huggins was dedicated at the Yankee stadium the other day and Babe Ruth made a sentimental speech about him, but Huggins' lack of authority with the Yankees was notorious in the days when the team was at the height of its power and fame and Ruth was the leader of those who made the little man's life a hell on earth for years. Huggins was liberal, trustful, and not cordial to spies except once the carousing became so flagrant that several of the athletes came roaring up the street to the hotel at 3 o'clock in the morning and stood beneath his window bawling, "O, Huggins, your ball club is cockeyed again. Miller, come get your drunken ball club."

The Nut Never Was Cracked.

After that a nut fan with much spending money joined the team just to be with them and established social relations with several of the festive young men. This culminated in a party in a brewery one night and at the height of the party a flashlight photograph was taken. When copies of this reached Jake Ruppert, through the detective agency, the athletes went looking for their generous friend, the nut fan with all the spending money. But he had turned in his report by this time and moved on to some other investigation and they never met him any more.

The new system will be a puzzle to the Giants for a while. It will take the boys some time to realize that there is nobody peering through a keyhole or crack to report them to McGraw if they don't eat up all their oatmeal.

Hoppe to Play Schaefer for 18.2 Cue Title

Jake Schaefer, world's 18.2 balk line billiard champion, will meet Willie Hoppe, 16 time holder of the world's 18.2 crown, for the American 18.2 balk line championship as one of the features on the billiard program at the Chicago Conventions exposition which opens Saturday at Navy pier and concludes July 7. Exact dates of the match have not been set.

Hoppe and the two Schaefers have been the outstanding balk line performers for the last 40 years. First Jake Schaefer Sr. was champion for 15 years then Hoppe took command for the next 16, and then young Jake took the honors from Hoppe.

Schaefer, however, announced yesterday he would not enter the three cushion championship, which will be another exposition feature. Hoppe will be in the field, as well as Johnny Layton, a ten time world's champion. Augie Kieckhefer, world's three cushion titleholder, is expected to make his decision today. Other three cushion headliners invited are Art Thurnblad, 1931 champion; Allen Hall, 1931 title runnerup, and Otto Reiselt of Philadelphia, the 1932 title runnerup.

The third title test will bring together Ralph Greenleaf, world's pocket billiard champion, and Andrew Ponzi, noted Philadelphia cueist, in a 1,500 point match for the American pocket billiard crown.

Fay Coleman, Culver City pro, shot a 75—71—146 to lead the field, but he will not be able to make the trip east. Morrison was second with 76—77—147 for the par 71 Riviera Country club course. Hunter's score was 76—75—151. Nichols, the 17 year old amateur, had 77—75—152.

Belmont Park Charity Races Bring in $25,000

New York, June 6.—(AP)—Belmont Park today was turned over to charity with a crowd of more than 10,000 paying approximately $25,000 into the treasury of the Nassau county emergency work bureau.

The $2,500 Nassau county handicap of one mile topped the card, but the crowd got its biggest kick out of the lead pony race, with former jockeys, now licensed trainers, in the saddle.

The honors went to Norman Kennedy, a leading jockey a decade ago, who had a leg up on Silvery Grey, a big, strapping pony from William Du Pont's Foxcatcher farms. Kennedy and his pony finished the three-sixteenths mile dash a head in front of Bingo, owned by Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin and ridden by Roy Waldron. About three lengths back trailed J. E. Widener's Bill, ridden by D. R. McDaniel.

JAMES SMILGOFF TO LEAD BADGER NINE NEXT YEAR

Madison, Wis., June 6.—[Special.]—James Smilgoff, Chicago, and Ralph Lovshin, Chisholm, Minn., were elected captains of the University of Wisconsin baseball and track teams, respectively, here today.

Smilgoff, a junior in the four year course in physical education, has been an outfielder for the last two seasons. He hit over .300 both years and has been second string catcher. With the graduation of Harry Griswold, first string catcher, who will get a tryout with the White Sox this week, Smilgoff is expected to do the catching in 1933.

Tilden Plays Nusslein at N. U. Today

Big Bill Tilden, for many years the world's amateur tennis champion and now the professional title holder, will make his first appearance of the Chicago outdoor season at the Northwestern university courts in Evanston today and tomorrow. The matches will start at 4 o'clock both days.

Tilden, who is in the midst of a middle western tour, is accompanied by the foreign stars, Karel Kozeluh of Czechoslovakia and Hans Nusslein and Ramon Najuch of Germany.

Today's matches will bring together Tilden and Nusslein in the singles and Tilden and Najuch against Nusslein and Kozeluh in the doubles. Tomorrow Big Bill will meet Kozeluh in the singles.

In his many years of campaigning Tilden has never met a more stubborn opponent than Nusslein, the 22 year old German star, who has fought him on practically even terms since their first engagement in Berlin last fall. In that match Tilden was carried to five sets.

They met again last winter in New York with the same results. Since that time Nusslein has been victorious several times. Kozeluh, who has just returned from Europe after a winter's play on the Riviera, is preparing himself for the world's professional championships to be held in Chicago late this summer.

time caddie. Ernest Daniels, whom the prince of Wales always employs, he chose a short shafted spoon, puffed out his cheeks, and with tremendous power drove the club through the whole lot. The ball flashed like a bullet straight for the pin over 200 yards away, finishing just short of the green. He pitched dead and holed thankfully for a 4. Only a man with Sarazen's strength and accurate timing could have done it.

Sarazen, who is popularly expected to win the championship, turned in 37 after having only one drive on the fairway. He drove into a bunker again at the tenth, but got a beautiful birdie 3 at the 13th, where a 300 yard drive left him with an easy mashie shot.

At the short 14th he had to sink an 8 yard putt for a par 3, and then he went serenely on to the 17th, where he scuffled a brassie into the rough, saving himself with a five after a great niblick shot onto the green.

CADDIE KILLED ANOTHER HURT BY LIGHTNING BOLT

Minneapolis, Minn., June 6.—(AP)—A caddie was killed by lightning and another struck unconscious as an electrical storm brought partial relief from 90 degree heat today. John Wronski, 22, Minneapolis, was killed after he and two others had taken refuge under a tree on the University of Minnesota course, where the state high school golf tournament was in progress.

Michael Berthon recovered consciousness after being taken to a hospital, and will recover, physicians said. Kenneth Tavernier, standing five feet from Wronski, was not injured.

Heilmann Loses Batting Eye and Job with Reds

Cincinnati, O., June 6.—[Special.]—Harry Heilmann reached the end of the big league trail today. The one time batting champion of the majors was handed his unconditional release by Manager Dan Howley of the Cincinnati Reds after a vain attempt at a comeback.

An attack of arthritis, contracted just before the start of the 1931 season, kept him idle all last year, but this spring he appeared to have recovered and asked Manager Howley for a place in the lineup. He could regain neither his batting eye nor his throwing arm.

BANKERS MEET OWEN YOUNG, TALK CREDITS

He Tells of Actions in New York.

Chicago's recently organized committee of bankers and industrialists—set up to find ways to stimulate business and employment—held a meeting in the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank building yesterday which was attended by Owen D. Young, chairman of a similar committee now functioning in New York and chairman of the General Electric company.

At the close of the meeting, which was held behind closed doors, Sewell L. Avery, chairman of the Chicago committee and president of Montgomery Ward & Co. and the United States Gypsum company, declined to state what took place.

"I have nothing to say now," Mr. Avery said as he stepped into an elevator to go to the office of Gov. James B. McDougal of the Chicago federal reserve district, "but I will have a statement to make in a day or two."

Tells of New York Acts.

Mr. Young, while equally noncommittal as to what had taken place, was a little more talkative.

"I just told the Chicago committee what we are doing in New York," Mr. Young remarked. "The members here naturally want to learn the results of our experiences. I can't tell you here just what we are doing in the east, though from time to time I issue statements in New York.

"So far committees have been formed for the New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Cleveland, Richmond, and Atlanta federal reserve districts. Eugene Meyer, governor of the federal board, is the only one now who can tell the results achieved by these committees.

"As a matter of fact, my principal object in coming out here was to make an address before Notre Dame university. However, I took advantage of the occasion to come over here and talk to the Chicago group."

Mr. Young, who is to leave for New York tonight, was asked if he had heard about Samuel Insull's retirement from the companies he had headed so long.

"Yes," he said. "I talked to Mr. Insull this morning."

Another out of town man to attend the Chicago meeting was Louis Blair Williams of the Cleveland reserve district.

Those at Session.

Among those to attend yesterday's meeting were Philip R. Clarke, president of the Central Illinois Bank and Trust company; Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National bank; A. W. Harris, chairman Harris Trust and Savings bank; D. F. Kelly, president of The Fair; R. E. Wood, president of Sears, Roebuck & Co.; Eugene Stevens, chairman of Chicago Federal Reserve bank; James B. McDougal, governor of the Chicago Federal Reserve bank; George M. Reynolds and John J. Abbott of the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust company.

The Chicago committee has a membership of eleven bankers and industrialists whereas the New York committee has twelve. One of the first actions of the Young committee in New York was to lay plans to place funds in the hands of the saving and loan associations of the Empire state to enable such groups to refinance the maturing mortgages of small home owners.

BANKS EXPAND CREDIT

The big banks of the country have continued expanding credit in the last week. This is shown in a report issued yesterday by the federal reserve board dealing with the position of member banks that make weekly reports to the reserve board. These comprise the large banks in the leading cities.

During the week ended last Wednesday these banks increased their commercial loans by $46,000,000, while reducing loans on securities by $3,000,000. While they sold $52,000,000 of government obligations, they increased their invesment in other securities by $31,000,000. This suggests that they did some preliminary buying in anticipation of the forming of the "bond pool" in New York.

The banks reduced their reservice balances at the federal reserve banks by $95,000,00 and they also increased their borrowings at the reserve banks by $19,000,000. Their net demand and time deposits declined $65,000,000, probably due largely to withdrawals to meet month-end commercial needs.

PAUL H. DAVIS IS AGAIN PICKED AS EXCHANGE HEAD

Paul H. Davis was reelected president of the Chicago Stock exchange for his second term yesterday at the annual election. Paul B. Skinner was renamed treasurer.

The regular slate of nominees for the governing committee was elected. New members, each to serve three years, are Laurence H. Armour, R. Arthur Wood, and Stuart Webster. Mr. Wood was formerly president of the exchange. Those reelected are Ford R. Carter, Warren A. Lamson, Charles Sincere, and Benjamin F. Stein. S. Louis Reinhardt Jr. was elected to the committee for a one year term.

Pullman Company Reports April Deficit of $386,417

The Pullman company, transportation subsidiary of Pullman, Inc., reported gross income of $3,621,199 for April, against $5,237,556 in the same month of 1931, a deficit of $386,417 after expenses and taxes compared with net income of $7,559 last year. Gross income for the first four months of this year was $15,996,505. Last year it was $22,057,511. A deficit of $825,126 was reported for the four months, compared with net income after taxes totaling $388,923 last year.

Farm Land Selling Better at Low Prices

BY SCRUTATOR.

An executive of a financial institution which has many million dollars invested in farm mortgages tells me that there is more interest in farm land now than there has been for many months.

The farm land picture, he says, is changing rapidly. Just what it will be in six months or a year he refused to guess. He states, however, that farm sales have improved lately and that inquiries from potential purchasers have increased.

This development is not unprecedented. For ten years there has been a gradual decline in the prices of farm products and, consequently, in the price of land. Every so often the decline has flattened out and prices have steadied for a time.

When Farm Land Sells.

Each pause in the ride downhill has drawn in buyers. Many of the farm owners who are being licked by their big mortgages today are those who bought during 1924 and 1925, thinking they were getting in at the bottom.

There are two types of farm buyers at present, the city man who believes that land is cheap enough now to be a good speculation, and the farmer who figures that that 160 acre piece down the road at $90 an acre is about as cheap as it will get and now that his boy has given up notions of going to the city it's a good time to cash those Liberty bonds and buy it.

My informant says most of the farm sales in Illinois are being made by field men for mortgage concerns. He says the majority of farm real estate dealers have been listening to the farmers for so long that they are defeated, although he recalls a few hustlers who are doing a good business.

Look to the Future.

People who buy farm land today are looking to the future. They realize that at present prices the hogs and corn and wheat that you raise on land costing $100 an acre won't pay 5 or 6 per cent on the investment. Therefore, their commitments are more speculations than investments. They are based on the purchaser's assumption that prices will not remain at their present low levels.

Urban purchasers of farm land are principally men of means who have some knowledge of farming and a desire to diversify their investments.

There also are, however, many dismissed employés who have managed to save a thousand or so dollars who are looking for a few acres, preferably along a well traveled highway, where they may raise vegetables and perhaps a few chickens and eke out subsistence for their families. Quite a little land in Michigan has been acquired by this type of purchaser.

Farmers Changing Minds.

Companies that hold farm mortgages say that there has been a decided change in the farmer's frame of mind during the last three years. Getting a deed to a farm with a defaulted mortgage is much harder than it was. In 1929 the farmer was likely to reason that farming was a poor calling and that it might be just as well to go to town and live with the young folks. Now the young folks are back home, jobs gone, illusions of easy life in the city vanished, and farmers are working harder than ever to keep their farms.

Meanwhile, the farm owner who has no mortgage to worry him and some money accumulated against the day when he would be able to buy more land at a bargain price is looking around. So is the renter, who will buy when he is convinced prices have hit bottom.

There are many potential purchasers, but they are more cautious than ever. How cagey the buyer has become is illustrated by the fact that one finance company has decided to discontinue its practice of painting up buildings on farms taken over on defaulted mortgages. It was found that slicked up buildings advertised the property as a "loan company farm" and gave prospective purchasers in the neighborhood the idea that it could be bought for a song.

Insull Stocks Rise on News He's Retiring

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

Shares of the "Insull" operating companies advanced sharply in the Chicago market yesterday as insiders bought on the knowledge of the impending announcement of a sweeping change in management of the concerns.

That the retirement of Samuel Insull as the active manager of these properties should be construed by the trading community as bullish news was due largely to the fact that the announcement ended the uncertainty which has existed for weeks as to the fate of the Insull régime. The relinquishing of nominal control by the man who had built the properties up to their present position came as a surprise to traders. Speculators bought on the theory that a change in management is traditionally the signal for a bullish demonstration.

Rumors Stimulate Buying.

The buying in the Insull stocks came largely from one commission house augmented by the speculative buying from the professionals. When rumors of the impending announcement first began to filter through the trading community around 11:30 in the morning the buying in the stocks began.

Commonwealth Edison marched up more than 8 points from its early low quotations and closed the day at 61 with a net gain for the day of 6 points. The no par shares of Public Service of Northern Illinois, which has been under severe selling strain recently, rallied sharply and closed nearly 6 points higher at 40. Peoples Gas was laggard on the New York exchange but gained 2 points on moderate turnover.

The further news that Insull was scheduled to surrender his job as co-receiver of the Middle West Utilities company stirred no response in the stock of that company. Quoted in the penny column since before the naming of receivers the stock yesterday sold off a few cents to close the day at 25 cents. On the New York curb the company's notes which went into default June 1 were slightly higher on light trading.

The recovery in the "Insull" shares yesterday came on the heels of recent sharp decline. Shares of all three of the big operating units had declined to new low prices in the last ten days. Uneasiness had existed because of the knowledge that the bankers holding control of the companies had arranged a special independent audit of the books of all the companies.

Banks Decide to Act.

The decision of the banks to exercise the control which they have held for several months in the companies was seen by La Salle street as a forerunner of dividends readjustments for each of the properties.

At present prices all the issues give an unusually high dividend yield at the current nominal rates of $8 annually. With the impending financing which the companies have to carry out a reduction in the dividend rates was seen as a logical development. The companies have been authorized to issue a total of $70,000,000 in bonds. Details of plans for marketing the bonds have not yet been made public.

PRICES OF GRAIN HIT NEW LOWS IN MART HERE

Corn, Oats Near 1897 Level.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

New low levels for grain prices in many years were established yesterday on the Chicago Board of Trade. A wave of liquidation with stop loss orders carried wheat off 2⅛@2⅜c; corn, 1@1⅛c; oats, 1⅛@1⅛c, and rye, 1⅛@1⅜c from Saturday's finish, with all deliveries with the exception of July wheat selling at a new low for the season.

Corn and oats sold at the lowest figures witnessed for any delivery since 1897, with July corn selling at 27½c, and July oats at 19½c per bu. July wheat at 51⅝c came within 2⅝c of the inside figure made last October, and was only 7c above the price at which the December future was quoted at the low point last fall. In June, 1897, July corn sold as low as 23¼c, while the September future in September, 1896, was down to 19½c.

Liquidation developed in the markets immediately after the opening and the decline was not checked until near the close, when short covering and buying against bids brought about a fair rally. Stop loss orders were uncovered in profusion on the way down. Wheat closed 1⅝@2c lower, with old July finishing at 52⅜@52½c; old September, 54½@54⅝c, and December, 57½c.

Winnipeg Leads Decline.

Another day of drastic liquidation in Winnipeg wheat served to unsettle the world's markets and create demoralization. The Canadian market broke 2¾@4½c from Saturday's finish, with the July touching 53c, or 8⅝c under the finish of Thursday, and only buying by exporters who were removing hedges against tremendous export sales prevented a further decline. A rally of over 3c from the inside price followed, with the close at net losses of ½@1c, the July being 56½c at the last in Canadian funds, or about 49c on a gold basis.

According to seaboard reports a record export business was put through in Manitoba wheat during the day, sales being estimated as high as 5,000,000 bu. Recently sales have been running around 500,000 bu daily, with a larger total claimed at times. Liverpool was off 3¼@3½c at the last, with July closing at 55⅝c.

Claim Farmers Must Pay.

A little American hard winter wheat was said to have been sold abroad during the day, but the amounts were not given, and trade gossip indicated that, with Winnipeg futures at a big discount under Chicago, Canada had apparently won the fight to see which country was able to dispose of the bulk of its old crop grain before the new was rushed to market. As some of the best posted traders see it, the taxpayer will pay for the government's efforts to stabilize the market for 1931 crop at 5@15c per bu above a world's parity, but the farmer will be forced to pay the bill for the 1932 crop in the readjustment to a world's price level.

Crop comments from the winter and spring wheat areas were generally favorable.

An increase of 2,768,000 bu in the domestic visible supply made the total

Morgan Quits Ship Combine Father Formed

New York, June 6.—(AP)—Announcement of the resignation of J. P. Morgan, son of J. Pierpont, from the directorate of the International Mercantile Marine was made today, as was that of Charles Steele, a Morgan partner. They are succeeded by Howard Bruce of Richmond, Va., and John M. Perry of Baltimore, Md.

Resignation of his directorship in International Mercantile Marine reduces Mr. Morgan's directorate offices to twelve.

International's merger in 1930 with the Roosevelt Steamship company and acquisition last year of the United States Lines brought in new shipping interests. The resignations announced today mark the first time since 1893 that the house of Morgan has not been represented directly on the shipping company's board. These actions also signalize the departure of Mr. Morgan from the board of a company that was a pet project of his father, most troublesome and least profitable of the elder Morgan's ventures.

In 1896, when J. Pierpont Morgan set out to create his world shipping

PROFIT TAKING OPENS WEEK IN WALL STREET

Selling Orderly During Day's Session.

BY FRED HARVEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 6.—The stock market dipped downward today after three optimistic sessions in which the trend was toward higher levels.

This market was an ordinary blue Monday affair. Its failure to continue to climb was not entirely unexpected. Traders, it seems, these days do not wait long to take their profits when profits are available.

The session began with fairly heavy selling, but the process of cashing in

LOANS — as Good as Ever

We are not turning down any greater proportion of loan applications to-day than in days gone by.

Why?

People are just as good and sensible and trustworthy to-day as they ever were before.

They don't ask for credit when they don't need credit ... they don't ask for credit if they know they can't pay what they have contracted for ... When they do ask for credit, because they have a good and sufficient reason and the ability to pay, they mean business ... and they do as they say they will do.

We have always maintained high standards ... and always will ... and it is fair to say that the standards of our borrowers are as high as ever ... so that to-day both bank and borrower are mutually helpful in the maintenance of high standards in our credit relationships.

URGES THRIFT AFTER 5 YEAR PROSPERITY JAG

Silas H. Strawn Cautions Skyscraper Men.

BY AL CHASE.

Rigid economy and reduction in the cost of government, coupled with a vigorous attempt to enlarge our foreign trade through some sort of adjustment of our foreign debt situation, are all necessary to bring us back to prosperity, Silas H. Strawn told members of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers at the opening session of their twenty-fifth annual convention at the Drake hotel yesterday. The subject of his address was "What the Country has Before It."

SILAS H. STRAWN.

"Get the cost of government down so tenants can pay their rent and owners can pay their taxes" urged Mr. Strawn. "In 1913 the cost of government took about $1 for every $15.50 of our national income. Now it takes about $1 for every $4 of income."

"We went on a severe prosperity jag which lasted for five years and oh, what a headache you get in five years! But don't get pessimistic; there's no use in whining; this depression is nowhere near so devasting and widespread as the panics of 1857, 1877, and 1893."

Been in Soak for Years.

Mr. Strawn deprecated the "soak the rich" diea. "They've been in soak for the last three or four years" he said. "What'll happen to the poor if the rich are soaked too much? We know what the rich will do. They'll take refuge in tax exempt securities, drawing their funds out of other investments and putting them into those that are tax exempt."

He warned the building owners and managers against the dole, which he said would be the beginning of the end. He predicted that it will take $350,000,000 to care for the destitute throughout the nation during the next three years. He suggested that the Reconstruction Finance corporation should arrange for federal loans to states.

"One of our greatest handicaps is the tremendous burden of taxes" said Mr. Strawn. "We overbuilt everything that cost money. You building men know that better than anyone else. We must correct our extravagences. Right now this country is paying four times as much for war veterans as any other nation in the world. We've got to stop our too liberal allowances to veterans. It's a racket.

Kelly Praises Chicago.

D. F. Kelly, chairman of the advisory board of the committee on public expenditures, addressed the building owners and managers at a later session, telling them what Chicago has accomplished to solve its tax problem. He said this is about the only large city in the country that has balanced its budget.

"But what Chicago has done can be done by every other city in America," declared Mr. Kelly.

The convention opened with an address by John T. Redmond, president of the Building Managers association of Chicago, and was followed by the report of the president of the national body, Charles F. Palmer of Atlanta, Ga., who presided at both sessions. Graham Aldis also spoke on taxes.

The business sessions were followed by a trip through the business district in charge of W. A. Niles. Last evening an informal party for delegates and guests was held in the Drake hotel ballroom. The convention will continue through Friday.

OPEN CAMPAIGN TO SECURE NEW BANKRUPTCY LAW

The launching of a nation-wide movement among trade and business associations throughout the United States for the revision of the bankruptcy law was announced yesterday by Henry W. Clausen of C. D. Osborn company, chairman of the joint committee. The objective of the committee is to secure passage of the new bankruptcy bill, sponsored by the department of justice, which is now before the judiciary committee of the senate.

The business men who are banded together in a drive to secure enactment of the bill believe that reform of bankruptcy procedure is essential to the return of business to a stable basis.

Business in Canned Food Market Is Reported Slow

Business in most branches of the canned foods market continues slow with prices irregular. Buying of Maryland tomatoes has become more active recently on reports of a very short supply of unsold goods.

MANUFACTURERS ASK $300,000,000 FOR DIRECT RELIEF WORK

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 6.—Extension of credit facilities by the federal government through the Reconstruction Finance corporation so as to make possible establishment of a 300 million dollar fund to be used for direct loans to the states or for underwriting of state bonds for unemployment relief is favored by the National Manufacturers' association in a statement issued today by the employment relations committee of the association.

The association expressed itself also in favor of federal loans for public and private enterprises which will be self-liquidating and declared itself opposed at this time to extensive programs of public construction through bond issues and to the creation of any fund to be given to the President to be used at his discretion for unemployment relief.

REPORT FRISCO FINANCING PLAN ABOUT READY

Interest Cut Proposal Must Be Prepared.

New York, June 6.—(AP)—Plans of the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway company for a financial reorganization, as suggested by the interstate commerce commission, were said today to have been practically completed.

A formula for reducing the road's interest charges must be submitted to the I. C. C. by July 1. It was on this understanding that the federal body approved a loan April 29 of $1,800,000 to the carrier from the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

While the Frisco board of directors expect to submit the desired reorganization plan the first of next month, it was thought that, in view of the hope for an upturn in traffic conditions, further time might be allowed for the company to work out a revised plan to conform with average low earnings for the year.

Asks for Coöperation.

Under the present program shareholders would be asked to coöperate in the reduction of fixed charges by accepting, for the time being, a lesser claim on future earnings. It is thought that this could be effected through the issuance of some security ahead of the present stocks. The new security, probably a prior preference stock or income bond, would preserve the present mortgage claims of the bondholders as far as possible. It is figured that if interest rates on certain existing issues are to be reduced the difference between the old and new rates would be made up through the assignment of shares in the proposed new issue.

There are said to have been six plans under consideration. The road has asked a further loan from the Reconstruction Finance corporation of $9,364,806 to take care of bank loans and interest on prior lien bonds falling due July 1.

Seeks to Pledge Bonds.

Washington, D. C., June 6.—(AP)—The Southern Pacific Railroad today applied to the interstate commerce commission for permission to pledge $35,646,106 of Central Pacific Railway company's European loan bonds for 1911 on short term bank loans.

The Delaware Railroad company has asked the commission for permission to issue $750,000 first mortgage 5 per cent bonds. The bonds will be turned over to the Pennsylvania railroad in payment for improvements the Pennsylvania has made on property leased from the Delaware.

Bendix Reports $26,364 First Quarter Profit

Bendix Aviation corporation reported a profit of $26,364 after all charges excepting federal taxes for the quarter ended March 31. After deducting estimated federal taxes the balance is equal to about 1 cent a share on 2,097,663 shares of capital stock outstanding. In the first quarter of 1931 the company had net earnings of $798,656 after all charges and including a nonrecurring profit. This was equal to 38 cents a share on the capital stock.

Exempt from all Federal Income Taxes

We shall be glad to submit suggestions for investments in high grade State, City and County Bonds which are totally exempt from the Federal Income Tax.

LAMBERT VOTES EXTRA DIVIDEND; RETAINS RATE

Detroit Edison and Others Take Action.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 6.—Although directors of the Lambert company ordered today a reduction in the regular quarterly dividend rate from $2 to $1 a share, they authorized, at the same time, an extra dividend of $1, thus bringing total payments for the current period to the regular basis in force prior to today's meeting.

The action establishes the stock on a regular $4 annual rate, compared with the $8 dividend which the company had been paying since the start of 1929. Both regular and extra are payable July 1 to holders of record June 17.

The Detroit Edison company voted the regular quarterly disbursement of $2 a share after the board had deferred action recently until this time in order to obtain the latest possible information as to present and immediately prospective business conditions.

A quarterly dividend of 12½ cents a share was declared on the common stock of the Eastern Steamship Lines, equal to halt the amount distributed in each of the two previous quarters.

City Bank Farmers' Trust company notified the New York Stock exchange that Belgian National railways have declared no super dividend on the preferred shares and that therefore the dividend due on the American shares representing this stock will not be paid at this time. On June 25, 1931, a dividend of 69 cents a share was paid and on Sept. 22, 1931, a payment of $4.12 a share was made.

WARNER BROS. SUIT DISMISSED; ANOTHER FILED

Wilmington, Del., June 6.—(AP)—A new receivership suit against Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc., was filed in Chancery court late today by Marinus P. V. Newcastle of New York after a receivership suit filed by him in February was dismissed earlier in the day by the same court.

Allegations of mismanagement and insolvency in the new bill are similar to those made in a receivership action filed last week in United States District court here by Harry Koplar, of University City, near St. Louis, Mo. Koplar's suit is pending.

Newcastle's bill alleged the corporation on motion of counsel for Warner Brothers after the court refused a motion by his attorneys to amend the bill by attaching a copy of the Koplar suit. Such amendment, it was argued by counsel for Warner Bros., would set up a new cause of action.

Estimated receipts at Chicago today: Cattle, 7,000; hogs, 19,000; sheep, 8,000.

Live stock prices stepped upward again on buoyant markets yesterday. A much better feeling prevailed in all branches when eastern demand expanded simultaneously with an abrupt drop in supplies at all leading centers.

Aggregate receipts of cattle, hogs, and sheep at Chicago at 49,000 head were lightest for Monday since March and 30 per cent below the average of the last six Monday totals.

On the bulge top cattle reached $7.65. Hogs sold up to $3.60, highest in 16 days, while new crop lambs soared to $7.40, highest since the middle of last month, and $1.00@1.25 above the low spot of the season.

$4 Hogs in the East.

Eastern demand for swine was the reassuring feature in the hog market. Four dollar hogs in the east warranted buying by eastern houses and shippers took 20 per cent of arrivals at Chicago. While receipts here at 27,000 were third smallest for Monday since 1928, shipments at 5,500 were largest since March. During the last few weeks shippers have been taking from 12 to 17 per cent of Monday receipts. Statistically the hog market is in a much stronger position. However, sellers are not crowding this newly gained strength and satisfied themselves with an upturn of 5@10c. The general average for the day at $3.25 showed 10c gain. The peak price at $3.60 compared with $3.40 Saturday and with $3.55 last Friday.

Light steers and yearlings led the way to higher ground in the cattle alleys. Other grades and classes trailed lazily along when they failed to share the competition with top grades. Quality of the beef supply was the best of the season and offerings carried an unusually large share of good to choice grades of heavy steers. The latter came near to satisfying the demand for weighty offerings and trading in 1,200@1,500 lb averages quieted down after the first burst of strength. Prices for the day ranged from steady to 25c higher. Handy weight cattle averaging 1,251 lbs topped the market at $7.65. Yearlings averaging 1,050@1,133 lbs reached $7.60.

A surprisingly large share of yesterday's cattle receipts got over the scales at $7.00@7.40, while comparatively few were of the class to sell at $5.50 and below. Cows and heifers ruled strong to 25c higher, several lots of 751@831 lb yearling heifers making $6.75, the highest for the class in five weeks. Grassy stock comprised a small share and sold steady. Calves were steady to strong.

Lambs Advance 25@75c.

Advances of 25@75c were recorded in the market for lambs and yearling stock yesterday, the new crop again going far ahead of the more matured animals on the budge. Closing sales were mostly 50@75c higher in this year's lambs which sold upwards to $7.35 to packers and at $7.40 to city butchers. Last year's lambs, now called yearlings, reached $5.75 near the end of the session. Receipts were exceptionally small. Only 8,000 arrived at Chicago, the smallest for Monday since March. The average for the last six Mondays stands at 17,900. Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 7,000 cattle, 19,000 hogs, and 3,000 sheep, against 13,405 cattle, 43,504 hogs, and 13,29 sheep the previous Tuesday when Monday's arrivals were also counted, and 7,753 cattle, 21,877 hogs, and 7,499 sheep a year ago.

LARD MARKET EASIER

Lard prices closed 2¼@25c lower in sympathy with the break in grains. There was no pressure of consequence from sellers. Cash business in meats continues good and hog prices were higher. Liverpool lard was unchanged. Exports of lard for the week were 10,635,000 lbs, against 9,307,000 lbs last year; of bacon they were 1,838,000 lbs, against 2,632,000 lbs last year.

Hog receipts were smaller than a week ago and as compared with a year and two years ago. Cash prices were easier with regular $3.60 and loose $3.07½, with last $3.00. Short rigs were $4.25 and dry salted bellies $4.12½. Prices follow:

EGG FUTURES STEADY

Butter and egg futures closed unchanged on the Chicago Mercantile exchange yesterday, increased selling at the close checking an early advance. While statistical reports continued relatively favorable, fears of increased production as a result of cool and rainy weather brought out selling at the last. The four markets reported 76,000 lbs. less butter and 14,000 cases less eggs into storage than last year. Early new buying and covering brought in a firmer tone but pressure gained near the close. Sales: butter, 31 cars; eggs, 53 cars. Deliveries: butter, 3 cars. Prices follow:
